

Terms for Registration, Cancellation and Payment

- The registration of participants is binding.
- The student tariff is granted to students / PhD who enclose a current certificate of enrolment with the registration.
- The members tariff is granted to companies or institutions with membership in EGEC or institutional or corporate membership at Bundesverband Geothermie.
- If you have to cancel the registration, you get 100% back until 30 days before the start of the conference (minus € 20 handling fee!). In all other cases, the financial responsibilities of the participants remain fully effective.
- Fees for field trips will not be reimbursed (unless the field trip is cancelled).
- The participation fees are owed upon registration and are payable within 8 days following submission of the registration.
- Participation is not guaranteed until full payment of the registration fee is received.
- Payments will be refunded if the conference is cancelled by the organizers. In that case, the organizers will have no further liability to the participant. In case of a ban on events by a regulation or official order, 50% of the conference fees will be refunded by the organizers.
- Registrations remain valid if the conference has to be postponed.
- The conference program may be subject to changes.
- The participants will be informed about all matters of this conference by the organizers via e-mail.
- The conference documents and congress pass will be given out at registration onsite the congress.
- You will only receive an invoice online, not by post.

Data protection:

- By registering, you consent to the storage of your data according to GDPR. The congress organizers protect your personal data. We will treat the data of the participants confidentially and only use them in accordance with the data protection regulations. Personal data are all data stored in connection with your name. The inventory data transmitted by the participant (first name, surname, billing address, e-mail address) is stored by the organizers in a list of participants and processed, used and - if necessary - passed on to service providers commissioned for this purpose for the purpose of providing the service and billing. Your personal data will not be passed on to third parties.
- Photography and filming: By registering, you give your consent to the creation of photographs of your person during the event and to the use of such images in association material and for public reporting. If you do not agree to this, please inform us in writing when registering.
- It is forbidden to photograph the presentations and posters!

Privacy policy and the code of conduct:

With your registration you allow the organizers of the conference to use your data for the preparation of the congress (e.g. import into a web software used, which is necessary for your participation in the conference). The data will not be passed on to other parties.